This study aimed to know the policy implementation of R.A. 6713 (code of conduct and ethical standards for public officials and employees) as perceived by the students of Mindanao-State University-Main Campus. Specifically, it sought to answer the following research questions: What is the level of awareness of the Respondents on R.A. 6713 otherwise known as Code of Conduct and Ethical Standards for Public Officials and Employees particularly on its norms of conduct? What is the perception of the respondents on the implementation of R.A. 6713 in terms of its norms of conduct; What is the status of the implementation of R.A. 6713 in terms of: Effectiveness, Efficiency and, Responsiveness, and, What are the problems perceived by the students on the implementation of R.A. 6713?

In this study, the researcher utilized the descriptive method of research, specifically, the survey approach of gathering data. It shall examine the data that will be gathered, analyzed, and interpreted the Implementation of R.A. 6713 Otherwise known as Code of Conduct and Ethical Standards for Public officials and employees as perceived by the students at Mindanao State University-Main Campus.

Quantitative method was utilized in this research. The quantitative method will involve the use of a structured survey questionnaire to draw data on the domains of inquiry. The survey research is one in which a group of people or items is studied by collecting and analyzing data from only a few people or items considered to be representative of the entire group. Similarly, the survey would assess public opinion or individual characteristics.

This study found out that the respondents are extremely aware on the norms of conduct stipulated on R.A.6713 otherwise known as code of conduct and ethical standards for public officials and employees. In addition, this study found out that the respondents have perceived that the norms of conduct stipulated on R.A. 6713 otherwise known as the code of conduct for public officials and employees where sometimes implemented in the semi-academic offices particularly in the Admission's office, Registrar's office, and Division of Student Affairs of Mindanao State University-Main Campus. Also, this study found out that the implementation of R.A. 6713 otherwise known as code of conduct and ethical standards for public officials and employees are neutrally implemented in terms of its effectiveness on the semi-academic offices in Mindanao State University-Main Campus such as the Admission's Office, Registrar's Office and Division of Student Affairs. Likewise, the implementation of R.A.6713 is also neutrally
